

CARTONET™ US PRIVACY POLICY

Biosense Webster, Inc. (“BW”) is concerned about privacy issues and wants you to be familiar with how we collect, use, and disclose information through CARTONET™, our cloud-based Software as a Service offering, its related Websites or Web property (including, for example, a mobile Web site or application) operated and controlled by us, or our CARTO® 3 System (collectively the “Services”), through which you may collect, review, analyze, share and otherwise use certain case data and related procedure data, along with video and image files, obtained during procedures performed using the CARTO® 3 System. This Privacy Policy describes our practices in connection with information (“Information”) that we or our service providers collect through the Services from which you are accessing this Privacy Policy. By providing Personal Information to us or by using and accessing the Services, you agree to the terms and conditions of this Privacy Policy.

To provide the Services, we leverage the Siemens Healthineers teamplay platform (“Siemens”), which operates on the Microsoft Azure Cloud. Please review the privacy policy for the Siemens teamplay platform <https://www.siemens-healthineers.com/support-documentation/cybersecurity>; <https://www.siemens-healthineers.com/infrastructure-it/digital-ecosystem/teamplay#Home> and for the Microsoft Azure Cloud <https://docs.microsoft.com/en-us/azure/security-center/security-center-data-security>.

The Services are only intended for use by health care professionals or other users in the United States (each, a “User”) who have registered and have an account with Siemens and are employees or contractors of the health care organization (the “Health Care Organization”) that has agreed to and accepted Siemens’ terms and conditions as the “Institution” through the following link: <https://teamplay.siemens.com/legal>, pursuant to a Subscription Agreement between the Health Care Organization and us. Any other person is not allowed to register with or use the Services. Please refer to our Terms and Conditions at <https://www.biosensewebster.com/products/cartonet/cloud-services-terms-and-conditions.aspx> for additional information about User eligibility.

Types of Information Stored and Processed in the Cloud

To provide the Services, certain information about you and your patients will be stored and processed in the cloud, including:

- “User Personal Information,” which includes identifying information about you, such as your name and e-mail address.
- “Patient Information,” which includes individually identifiable health information of patients being treated by the User and/or Health Care Organization, including “Protected Health Information” or “PHI,” as such term is defined under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, as amended (“HIPAA”). Patient Information and “User Personal Information” shall collectively be referred to as “Personal Information.”
- “Passive Information,” which means information that does not directly or indirectly identify and cannot reasonably be used to identify an individual. If Passive Information is subsequently directly or indirectly associated with Personal Information, we then treat it as Personal Information.

Note, BW will only have access to anonymized data in the cloud as more fully described in the How We Use and Disclose Information section.

How We Collect Information

- We collect Information when you: register with us; perform procedures using the CARTO® 3 System, input information into CARTONET™ or the CARTO® 3 System; create User generated content; request products, services or information from us; participate in public forums or other activities through the Services; respond to customer surveys; or otherwise interact with us or the Services.
- As you navigate through and use the Services, certain information can be passively collected (that is, gathered without your actively providing the information), using various technologies. We and our third party service providers passively collect and use information in a variety of ways, including:
 - Through your browser: Certain information is collected by most browsers, such as your Media Access Control (MAC) address, computer type (Windows or Macintosh), screen resolution, operating system version, and Internet browser type and version. We may collect similar information, such as your device type and identifier, if you access the Services through a mobile device. Using cookies: Cookies are pieces of information stored directly on the computer you are using. Cookies allow us to collect information such as browser type, time spent using the Services, pages visited, and language preferences. We and our service providers use the information for security purposes, to facilitate navigation, display information more effectively, and to personalize your experience while using the Services. We also use cookies to recognize your computer or device, which makes your use of the Services easier. In addition, we use cookies to gather statistical information about the Services usage in order to continually improve its design and functionality, understand how individuals use it, and to assist us with resolving questions regarding it.

You can refuse to accept these cookies by following your browser's instructions; however, if you do not accept them, you may experience some inconvenience in your use of the Services. .To learn more about cookies, please visit <http://www.allaboutcookies.org>.

- Using Flash cookies: Our use of Adobe Flash technology (including Flash Local Stored Objects ("Flash LSOs")) allows us to, among other things, serve you with more tailored information, facilitate your ongoing access to and use of the Services, and collect and store information about your use of the Services. If you do not want Flash LSOs stored on your computer, you can adjust the settings of your Flash player to block Flash LSO storage using the tools contained in the Website Storage Settings Panel. You can also control Flash LSOs by going to the Global Storage Settings Panel and following the instructions (which may include instructions that explain, for example, how to delete existing Flash LSOs (referred to as "information" on the Macromedia site), how to prevent Flash LSOs from being placed on your computer without your being asked, and (for Flash Player 8 and later) how to block Flash LSOs that are not being delivered by the operator of the page you are on at the time). Please note that setting the Flash Player to restrict or limit acceptance of Flash

LSOs may reduce or impede the functionality of some Flash applications, including, potentially, Flash applications used in connection with the Services or our online content.

- Using pixel tags, web beacons, clear GIFs, or other similar technologies: These may be used in connection with some Services pages and HTML-formatted e-mail messages to, among other things, track the actions of the Services users and e-mail recipients, measure the success of our marketing campaigns, and compile statistics about the Services usage and response rates.
- IP Address: Your IP Address is a number that is automatically assigned to the computer that you are using by your Internet Service Provider. An IP Address is identified and logged automatically in our server log files whenever a user uses the Services, along with the time of the visit and the page(s) that were visited. Collecting IP Addresses is standard practice on the Internet and is done automatically by many web sites. We use IP Addresses for purposes such as calculating Services usage levels, helping diagnose server problems, and administering the Services.
- Device Information: We may collect information about your mobile device, such as a unique device identifier.
